

Psalms of Ascent
Psalm 127

Introduction

- Everyone is _____!
- Our minds inevitably _____ back to the job at hand
- Psalm 127 is written to workers and its intent is to move our minds from our _____ to the _____
- Man was _____ in _____ before the fall
- Our _____ is the work that God has called us to do
- This song served to bring a healthy balance in their minds between their _____ to their _____

1. J _____

- Solomon was not only the wisest man that ever lived, but he was also one of the _____ and one of the most _____
- The premise of the psalm is that God _____
- Our work goes _____ when we lose _____ with the God
- God did not invent the division between the _____ and the _____...we did!
- Our work is our _____!

2. O _____

- It is hard for us to get a full appreciation for the context of these singers who worked for _____
- _____ brings rest to our anxious souls
- Life is not meant to be a continual _____
- To work long days without divine _____ and _____ is futile
- Learning to _____ on God is the beginning of an exciting journey with Him and results discovering _____

3. B _____

- The psalm not only posts a _____, it gives an _____
- Life is about _____
- The most valued thing that we have in this life are the _____ and the _____ that we make with those closest to us
- Jesus did not _____ children, yet by His _____ He made us all sons and daughters
- We learn a way of work that _____ to God and develops _____