

The Psalm of Ascents Psalm 133

Introduction

- The trip to Jerusalem must have been a very _____ for the pilgrims who ascended
- It was a time of _____ as celebrated in the little song they sang in Psalm 133
- The same _____ that they experienced in their ascent to Jerusalem is the same _____ that we are offered in our journey towards God

Pleasant

- The NAS does the better job of translating this passage because it begins with the word _____
- The magnitude of what God did to create a nation was made _____ _____ as the masses began to convene on Jerusalem
- The one _____ that brought them to Jerusalem was to honor and to praise the Lord

Precious

- Nothing was more spectacular and special than the day the high-priest was _____.
- When God's people live together in unity it is _____, _____, _____ and _____
- When we live in _____ the Lord is present and _____ us
- Our unity has a profound _____ testimony to the world looking on
- Unity never comes without a _____
- The experience of true unity is an extreme _____

Productive

- The dew demonstrates a source of _____ and _____
- The characteristics that God wants in our lives are seen in the nine-fold _____ of the _____
- The presence of God's spirit in our lives is what creates the _____ for true unity and the blessings

Privilege

- The twelve tribes were diverse in many ways, but had one _____ _____ among them
- One's relationship to God then, as now, was as an individual, but it was as an individual in _____
- The closer we draw to God and to His way, the closer we are drawn to _____
- Their connection to God's blessing was one that was conferred through _____
- The privilege of God's blessing only begins the moment that we _____ our lives and allow Him to _____ and _____
