

Songs of Ascent Psalm 134

INTRODUCTION

- Our world as we know it is being _____ on every front it seems
- The church today is in dire need of a new reformation, one that will restore its _____ in _____
- Psalm 134 is an antidote to a _____ type of worship
- You and I were made to _____

The Call to Worship

- The sentence is an _____; it is also a _____
- The pilgrims were put on their journey not for _____ principally, but for _____
- “The chief end of man is to _____ God and _____ Him forever”
- We were made first and foremost to know God and to allow that relationship to _____ and _____ everything else

The Conduct in Worship

- We are invited to _____ the Lord; we are commanded to _____ the Lord
- You may not be able to command your heart, but you can command your _____
- Many think that the only way to change your behavior is to first change your _____
- The people who were first addressed by this command were the _____ of worship in the Jerusalem temple

The Consequence of Worship

- This is a _____ offered by the priests and Levites
- The worship leaders ask the Lord to _____ the hearts of the people, _____ their faith, and _____ their passion for God
- We have this _____, and so it stands that we also bear a great _____
- God's blessing originates from Zion, which is the place where He _____